

The Week at a Glance

Seven nights on one page — pencil the plan now, keep the week calm later.

Night	The principle	Our plan for the night
Dec 26 Night one	Umoja Unity
Dec 27 Night two	Kujichagulia Self-Determination
Dec 28 Night three	Ujima Collective Work and Responsibility
Dec 29 Night four	Ujamaa Cooperative Economics
Dec 30 Night five	Nia Purpose
Dec 31 Night six	Kuumba Creativity
Jan 1 Night seven	Imani Faith

December 31 carries double duty — Kuumba night and the Karamu feast (pages 13–15). Zawadi, the gifts, are traditionally shared on January 1 (page 18).

A WORD ON SIZE

A night with two people at the kitchen table is as true a Kwanzaa night as a full house. Plan the big gathering where it fits, and let the quiet nights be quiet.
